The game of "Yes, and"!

In Two Man Show, teams of 2 compete against each other (and the audience) to put on an improvised performance. Draw your ROLES and scene OBJECTIVES and work with your partner to accomplish them. The catch? Your partner doesn't know your objective, and you don't know theirs! Do your best to follow your partner's lead... while juggling any INTERFERENCE curveballs the audience throws at you. As they say — the show must go on!
